Excerpt: . . . funded the same and sold the new bonds at market rates for 59. 40, thereby realizing a profit of 35. 40 on an investment of 24. It is easy to see that by a like process with the whole ten million of the peeler debt the syndicates could have netted 3, 500, COO on that alone, without reckoning their commissions and profits from other sources in this funding job, of which they had the complete monopoly, without restriction as to per cent. They were in no sense the agents of the State; in effect, the assignees. The bill was not only forcible in the hands of the syndicates as against the peeler creditors, but also as against the consol creditors and the State herself. The force here was principally provided in THE TAX CERTIFICATES² heretofore alluded to, whose issue was compulsory in default of money in the treasury to meet any payment of accrued interest under the bill; and as interest was payable every six months, with default assured in advance at every such period, these certificates, to be sold at seventy-five cents in the dollar, were issuable semi-annually and redeemable every six months, 3 thus subjecting the State, as long as the process was possible, to an exaction of 5 per cent, per month, or 6Cf per cent, per annum, to raise means to pay 3 per cent, interest upon the bonds issued under the bill. How much better and more direct, how much...
